- Attentively receiving, analyzing and concentrating on information for a total of eight or more hours within a work day of reasonable duration;
 - Processing substantial volumes of information, originally presented in written form (e.g., legal briefs, cases, transcripts);
 - Comprehending attorneys and others;
 - Absorbing, analyzing, researching and weighing complex issues quickly and accurately;
 - Responding to situations with discretion, judgment and restraint while under pressure; and,
 - Producing a large volume of written decisions in diverse and complex areas of the law.
- (b) Have you ever illegally used drugs? If so, when was the last time you did so? Are you currently engaged in the illegal use of drugs? Please feel free to explain.

- (c) At any time in the last ten years have you been diagnosed as having, or have you received treatment for, pathological or compulsive gambling? If so, please provide information to show whether and how well the condition is currently controlled.
- (d) Is there any reason that, with or without reasonable accommodation, you could not exercise the discretion, judgment, and emotional and mental discipline required of a judge?
50. If any articles or allegations have ever been printed or broadcast or otherwise made public concerning you or your activities, views or statements (irrespective of factual accuracy) which may reflect adversely on your character or job performance, identify the material, explain fully, and attach a copy of the publication to this application. (If the volume is extensive, attach representative samples of the publications and specify where the balance may be reviewed.)
51. Are you aware of any individual(s) or group(s) who may oppose your appointment? If so, identify the potential opponents and provide any needed explanation.
52. Describe any aspects of your personal or judicial conduct which may reflect positively and/or adversely on you or the Governor or which you believe should be disclosed to the Governor in connection with your application for appointment to the appellate court.
53. What do you consider the three most important qualities required of an appellate judge? Are any of these qualities different in importance from those required of a trial judge? Please explain why you believe you possess these qualities and how you acquired them.
54. Why do you want to be an appellate court judge? What do you think best qualifies you for elevation to such a position? What would you seek to accomplish if appointed?
55. Please attach your photograph (optional) and a copy of your resume.
56. If not already provided in response to earlier questions, please attach samples of your legal writing (e.g., decisions or opinions you authored). The samples should not exceed a total of 75 pages.
57. Please list five references (name, current address and telephone number).

AUTHORIZATION AND RELEASE

I hereby acknowledge and agree that my application may be given to the Commission on Judicial Nominees Evaluation of the State Bar of California ("JNE Commission") in the event my name is submitted for evaluation by that agency; and that all or portions of my application or the information contained therein may be given to or shared with the judicial evaluation committee of my local bar association (if that association is providing such assistance to the Governor's Office) and other committees and/or individuals who have been asked by the Governor to assist him in the evaluation of applicants for judicial appointment. I further acknowledge and agree that for the purpose of aiding the Governor in evaluating my background and qualifications, the foregoing organizations and individuals will be entitled to seek and obtain information and documents concerning me from attorneys, judges and other third parties, including those mentioned in my application.

I hereby authorize any governmental, licensing or law enforcement agency, including but not limited to the State Bar of California and the Commission on Judicial Performance, and major national credit reporting organizations (collectively referred to as "agencies") to release to the Governor of the State of California any and all information which those agencies may have about me (whether public, personal or confidential) for the purpose of aiding the Governor in evaluating my background and qualifications for appointment to the trial or appellate court. I understand that I will not receive and am not entitled to know the contents of confidential reports received from these agencies and I further understand that these reports are privileged, except that I am entitled to receive a copy of reports from major national credit reporting agencies and the Commission on Judicial Performance.

I hereby release and discharge all such agencies, their agents and representatives, and any person furnishing information from any and all liability of every nature and kind arising out of the furnishing and inspection of such documents, records and other information, and this release shall be binding on my legal representatives, heirs and assignees.
